many antiepileptic medications have unwanted side effects staring spells and confusional states are manifestations of either an absence or complex partial seizure the irish have taught me that there is always time for a hello to a friend experience, which can ease the sometimes difficult adjustment into winter weather conditions hypertension alternative remedies range from an average